Laurent Huber – Women and Health

In 2020, women's health will be a critical issue in the commemoration of the UN Fourth World Conference on Women #Beijing25. Laurent Huber, director of Action Against Smoking, believes that women's rights to health are violated if they do not get the information, preventive services, and treatment for non-communicable diseases. The tobacco industry targets girls, resulting in rises in tobacco use. That trend rings alarm bells for their sexual and reproductive health later in life.
