The feminist and women’s movements is a campaign that can use Beijing + 25 to advance a Feminist and Women’s Movement Action Plan.

We can break down silos, build a transformative framework and build new alliances and solidarity as well as develop an action plan and feminist action coalitions.
We must leverage the power of global consensus and binding legal obligations for accountability:

• Beijing Platform for Action
• Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) and other human rights treaties
• The sustainable development goals (SDGS)
